MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

FROM: [redacted]

Executive Secretary

25X1

SUBJECT: CIPC Study on the Prospects and Means for Improving CBW
Intelligence Capabilities [redacted]

25X1

1. As you know, the CIPC staff has been investigating this intelligence problem for some time. During the staff's investigation strong Intelligence Community support was expressed for the CIPC to form a CBW working group and undertake a comprehensive, systematic review of this problem. [redacted]

2. The staff has finalized a draft Terms of Reference (TOR) on this subject (Tab A). The draft TOR has also been reviewed by selected Intelligence Community CBW experts and their respective comments and recommendations have been incorporated. [redacted]

25X1

3. Your review and coordination of the draft TOR is therefore requested pursuant to implementing the study effort and convening the working group. Also attached (Tab B) for your background information is a CIPC staff discussion paper on this subject. [redacted]

25X1

4. The draft TOR will be tabled for discussion and approval, as appropriate, at the CIPC meeting scheduled for 13 February 1984. [redacted]

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: Eloise R. Page
Chairman, Critical Intelligence Problems Committee
SUBJECT: Intelligence Community Capabilities Against Terrorism

25X1

1. At the off-site conference held [redacted] 11-12 December, you asked the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee to review the Intelligence Community's effort against terrorism. The attached is our initial response to that quick baseline review of where the IC stands now. It was prepared by our staff working with representatives of CIA, DIA, NSA, State, the Services, FBI, JSOC, and the Secret Service.

2. This is a preliminary report. I have asked Community members to work with the CIPC to examine this problem in depth and make specific recommendations for actions which can be taken to improve our position on this critical problem. We will provide you another report in four weeks.
